

Caveat to 1838 Florida Constitution

We the House of Representatives, in joint session on this 17th day of March, 2012 do hereby declare that we unanimously approve the 1838 Florida Constitution with the changes noted below.

- The removal of any reference to a black man not having the right to vote or own property.
- Remove any reference to Race, Color, Religion or Creed
- The removal of any reference to a woman not having the right to vote (women's suffrage).

We, the Florida free state Senators and Representatives agree to place our signature below with the following Caveat:

Any and all wording included in this Constitution for the Florida free state which represents any "defacto" principals, ordinances or laws that cause infringement on the sovereign rights of any individual in the Florida free state, is declared excluded, null, void and as a matter of principal under Common Law.

Done in Convention, held in pursuance of an act of the Governor and Legislative Council of the Florida free state, entitled, "An Act to call a Convention for the purpose of organizing a Republic Government," passed this 17th day of March in the year, Two Thousand and Twelve.

In witness whereof the undersigned the Representatives and Senators, representing the sovereign people of Florida Republic, do hereunder sign our names, this 17th day of March, in the year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.
